CHAIRMAN HAYS TELLS CAMPAIGN FUND PROBERS G. O. P. FIGHT WILL COST ABOUT FIVE MILLIONS

CHARGES DEMOCRATS FIGURE ON RAISING A LARGER SUM

(BULLETIN)
CHICAGO, August 30.—The Republican campaign for 1920 will be carried on at a total expenditure of $5,000,000, according to testimony given here today before the senate committee investigating campaign funds. The chairman of the national Republican committee, but he explained that $1,000,000 of the total had been expended by the organization which went out of office with the end of the Republican national convention.

Mr. Hays emphasized that the present national committee had a budget of approximately $3,000,000 and that $1,000,000 of the total expected to pass through the committee's treasury would be allocated back to the states for strictly state purposes.

The testimony was in the nature of a reply to charges made by Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, that the Republican campaign fund would total $15,000,000. Mr. Hays denied this charge and also denied positively that any "big money interests" had underwritten the Republican expenses.

The Republican budget, Senator Kenyon brought out on cross examination of Mr. Hays, did not provide for the increased railroad fares in the transportation items, nor for the increased cost of postage on campaign literature. The committee chairman also questioned the witness about the increased cost of all campaign items over four years ago.

"In fact," Senator Kenyon observed, "the cost of campaigning has increased with the cost of living."

"This $15,000,000 'corruption fund,' that Governor Cox speaks of, do you know how it was to be used to corrupt the public?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"That statement is as false as it is belated," Mr. Hays declared.

ASSERTS PEACE TREATY CAUSES WOE IN EUROPE

Otto H. Kahn.

That the general suffering in Europe since the cessation of the war is due more to the treaty of peace signed at Versailles than to the war itself is the conclusion of Otto H. Kahn, the well known New York banker, who recently returned from England, France and Italy, instead of creating "peace," Mr. Kahn says, the treaty has merely created dissension among the countries of Europe.

Polish Peace Delegates Are Virtually Bolsheviki Prisoners

(BULLETIN)
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Russian Soviet forces engaged in a counter offensive against the Poles east of Brest-Litovsk have occupied four villages in that vicinity. Near Lemberg there is heavy fighting going on, and in the Volhynia and Grodno regions there is local fighting. This information was received here this morning in a wireless dispatch from Moscow containing an official statement issued there yesterday.

MINSK, Aug. 22.—VIA MOSCOW.—Members of the Polish peace delegation who came to this city to arrange an armistice and negotiate a treaty ending the war between Poland and Soviet Russia, have been engaged in a continual controversy with Bolsheviki of the fields since arriving here. Disagreements between the delegation and the Soviet commissars in command of the quarters where the Poles are virtual prisoners have reached bewildering proportions regarding the use of a wireless plant by the Poles and the conditions to be observed in the house where the delegation is living.

Since the delegation was received in the city, the treatment in the house of the delegation has been a constant source of contention. PRESIDENT APPROVES MINERS' WAGE RAISE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—President Wilson today approved the majority report of the anthracite coal commission increasing the wages of contract miners 20 percent over present rates.

Miners employed as company men are given an increase of 17 percent and the same amount is given "consideration miners" and "quarry" laborers and monthly men.

The findings, the report said, would fix a minimum rate of 32 1/2 cents per hour for the lower paid men in the anthracite industry.

Officials of the anthracite commission said the joint wage scale committee of miners and operators had already been called to meet Wednesday or Thursday to consider application of the award. They characterized the meeting at Wilkesbarre, Pa., last night as an insurgent gathering without authority to commit the miners to rejection.

The president struck out of the report a provision fixing the terms of retroactive payments under the award which he said was outside the commission's jurisdiction. Thomas Kennedy, chairman of the miners' scale committee, had protested this feature of the award, he said.

Anthracite mine workers will receive about $15,000,000 in back pay under the retroactive feature of the award which makes it effective April 1, 1920, and the total increase applied to the 175,000 miners will cost the commission $10,000,000 annually.

The majority report declared that the award "offers no justification for any advance in the retail price of coal, but on the other hand, is consistent with a decline in prices." Any sharp advance in retail prices, the report added, could not be charged to the operators, the miners or the award.

The minority report submitted by Commissioner Ferry while departing from the majority's conclusions, says that officers of the United Mine Workers "will of course accept and carry out this majority award with the utmost good faith."

"While the adjustment of any dispute necessarily results in some disposition," the president said, "I am sure that the spirit with which you have acted will receive the commendation of the American people."

HUNGER STRIKING LORD WILL FORFEIT LIFE

LONDON, August 30.—The hunger strike of Terrence MacSweeney, lord mayor of Cork, is progressing so far that he is in such condition that even if he took food now it would do him no good, according to a statement by the British prison doctor to MacSweeney's wife, who visited her husband this morning.

Mrs. MacSweeney remained with her husband for three hours. She said he was conscious and recognized her but was unable to speak. Mrs. MacSweeney was pale and bore evident signs of the terrible strain.

Italy In Accord With U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 30.—Italy has informed the United States that the two governments are practically in accord as to settlements concerning Russia and Poland contained in the recent American note, Secretary Colby announced today.

The communication was made through the counselor of the embassy in a formal visit to the state department, Mr. Colby added. A reply to the note would be made, he said, as soon as the Italian premier returned to Rome for luncheon.

NORTHERN OHIO WANTS COAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 30.—Ohio and Michigan should have an equal share with Canada in the distribution of coal, C. A. Albright, of the Cleveland chamber of commerce, told the interstate commerce commission today supporting the petition of Cleveland and Akron for a modification of the northwest emergency coal order.

The Cleveland and Akron chambers asked that some of the coal shipped to the northwest under the order be diverted for the use of their cities.

Mr. Albright said Cleveland would need approximately 1,000,000 tons for the year beginning May 1. He added that the city could not avoid a coal shortage this winter even with coal from distribution. It could be shown, he said that Canada does not have a shortage and argued that the Dominion should not have a 100 percent coal supply and all the shortage fall on Michigan and Ohio.

Albright said that Cleveland had not taken up the question of lightness of rail, railway and similar ways, time measures to conserve coal, but directed the city was ready to take every possible step to meet the situation.

BROOKLYN HAS CAR STRIKE, ALL SYSTEMS ARE TIED UP

NEW YORK, August 30.—More than one million Brooklyn residents, who depend largely upon the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company to take them to business, today were reduced to improvised and even primitive methods of conveyance by the strike of company employees that virtually shut down the entire transit system—subways, elevated roads and trolleys.

The strike went into effect early Sunday morning, after the men had previously voted to postpone action pending further attempts to adjust wage demands.

Long before the accustomed rush hour this morning the streets were jammed with pedestrians looking for vehicles most of which were already crowded with passengers. Notwithstanding the use of automobiles from Manhattan to Jersey, large trucks and horse-drawn wagons, many thousands had to walk to their distant places of work. The strike yesterday kept thousands of persons from Sunday excursions to the beaches. However, a crowd estimated at 100,000, managed to reach Coney Island in public and private automobiles.

Hearing on the strike situation were called for today by Lindsey M. Garrison, receiver for the company, and by Mayor Hylan.

Mr. Garrison requested his companies in New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts to send as many vehicles here as possible.

Officials of the company announced that strike breakers will be employed. Application has been made for police protection of trains.

In addition to pressing automobiles into service, Grover A. Whalen, commissioner of plants and structures, obtained busses to run from Brooklyn to Manhattan during the morning rush and back to Brooklyn in the afternoon and evening, carrying approximately 40,000 passengers at a single trip. The fare charged was five cents.

Six chartered steamboats and two of the city's police boats also were put into service, carrying passengers from Coney Island and from East River points.

Commissioner Whalen said strong efforts would be made to protect the public from profiteering in transportation fares during the emergency.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a fifteen-year-old girl and am coming to you for a bit of your opinion concerning the following: I have heard it said that the reason church congregations are getting small is that the church does not offer enough amusement for its congregations. I, too, say they have dwindled but not from this cause. The real cause is that the church is a temple set aside and dedicated to God's Word and to the study of His demands. We all know that God's house is a temple set aside and dedicated to His cause, that His people may be led to Him and that men may learn of His wonderful love and plan of salvation. God's house is most assuredly not a place for worldly enjoyment and idleness. A community can not hope to be at its best and not look to the future of its young people by providing good, clean and wholesome recreation and entertainment—but the two—the church and the social life combined as one, can never be because there is too wide a difference between church service and community entertainment. Now, I will thank you very much if you will please tell me the name and location of a good school controlled by Baptists, where little students go.

ASTE-WORLDLINESS.

I believe your pastor could tell you more about Baptist colleges than anyone else. However, here are the names of a few junior colleges you might write to: Rio Grande college, Rio Grande, Ohio; Broadus college, Broadus, W. Va.; Cedar Valley college, Cedar Valley, Iowa; Colorado Women's college, Denver, Colorado; Stephens college, Columbia, Mo.

Dear Dolly—I would like to know the dates of the Apple show in Iron-on and the Fall Festival in OHIO.

A READER

The Apple Show opens on Labor Day and the Fall Festival on Tuesday evening, September 21st.

Dear Dolly—I would like to know if corn is supposed to be served with the slits or tassels on it. I am a newly married man and married an uptight wife and she always cooks corn with tassels on it. Now I never was used to eating the slits but if that is the style now I suppose I will have to learn it. If not please print in your column how to get the tassels off so my wife will see it.

YOUNG HUSBAND.

The slits should come off, and the quickest way to get 'em off is to use a small stiff brush. Why don't you try a little brush and tell your wife to use it on your roasting ears, before they are cooked.

Dear Dolly—I see a great deal in your column about unhappy husbands and wives and I would like to tell you my troubles. The majority of men think if they furnish a home and make a living for a wife that is all that is necessary to make her happy. I say it isn't. Women nowadays can make a home for themselves. They can't have to depend on men to do it. If a man expects a woman to leave her happy home for him it is his duty to make her new life more happy and complete than the one she was living and that's where they all "fall down". My husband is good to me and I can't get everything I want but I am not happy because he does not love me. He has a nature like a snail. He never tries to humor me any more than if I were a perfect stranger. He treats me more like a housekeeper. If I try to be affectionate he says he is tired of that sort of thing. I try to please him and do things but he never seems to care a thing I do. Never gives me a pleasant word or anything. I am away from my folks and it is terrible to live such a life. Dolly, does a man really love a woman when he treats her that way. What shall I do?

WOMANLY WIFE.

Some men are born without any affection in their natures. Unfortunately your husband seems to be one of this variety. It is a wonder you hadn't discovered this before you married him. He is supremely selfish or he would want to please you in little ways when it would be so easy. About the only thing you can do is to adjust yourself to the situation. You need not feel that you are making your home with him and that's where they all "fall down". You are making your home with him and that's where they all "fall down". You are making your home with him and that's where they all "fall down".

SLIGHTLY DAMAGED SALE WHITTALL RUGS

STARTS TOMORROW AND WILL CONTINUE UNTIL SOLD

We have on file in our office a bill from the Whittall Manufacturing concern stating that they had shipped our order for Anglo Persian and Royal Worcester Rugs on March 10th, but owing to some oversight, caused by the railroads, did not arrive until last Thursday, the 26th of August. And in unpacking them we find that they have been slightly damaged by water, and heavy freight being piled upon them has slightly crushed their nap, which in no way will affect the appearance of them. Possibly you may not know that there are only two ways that you may sell Whittall's rugs under price.

One way is when they have refused to manufacture a certain pattern, then you may advertise it as a dropped pattern. The other way is by receiving their consent to sell as we are doing, rugs which we have received by freight damaged. Make no mistake in buying your rugs now. This concern will not guarantee any orders for rugs this spring. This shipment of damaged rugs were more than glad to receive, under such conditions, otherwise we would have cancelled the order, and by us owning this shipments at last March prices, and the amount which will be allowed by the railroads for damages, will allow you a fine chance to secure a fine quality rug at a very low price.

He wanted to" (played by T. Roy Barnes) had never forgotten his experience on a yachting trip when he had given anything he possessed for a chance to scratch his back when it was itchy, but was kept in misery by pretty girls and a talkative woman who wouldn't let him go until he finally broke away and had it scratched by a rough old sailor he met on the deck of the yacht. And then one night years after he went to a theatre and sat behind a lady with a very beautiful back, who turned out later to be Madeline Loran (Helene Chadwick), whose husband (Lloyd F. Whitlock) had been offered a diplomatic post. Val refused the post, to help her. She told him of the shoulder blade that made him itchy, a weird, strange story and of course he understood at once. The lady was going to be married, he helped her, and the lady on the yachting trip. She was surprised by his story and many things at the theatre and couldn't scratch it until it was a comedy scene.

Besides she couldn't scratch the itchy spot even if she wished to upset all the proprieties by scratching her back in public. It was too much for Val. Sympathy ran away with him and when the light were out he scratched her back for her.

But Val was horrified when, during the next act, she slipped him a note thanking him and asking him to call at her home, the address of which she had written. He saw trouble ahead and swore "I'll never scratch another back."

However, he called on her and it developed that she wasn't flirting but was in trouble and needed some daring sort of a man—such as one who would scratch a strange lady's back in a theatre—to help her. She told him a world's strange story and of course he understood at once. The lady was going to be married, he helped her, and the lady on the yachting trip. She was surprised by his story and many things at the theatre and couldn't scratch it until it was a comedy scene.

BRINGING UP FATHER

CAMP SHERMAN SOLDIERS PATROL STRIKE DISTRICT

WILLIAMSON, W. VA., August 30.—Federal soldiers today took up their stations in the Mingo county strike region. Headquarters having been established here yesterday by Colonel Burkhardt, who commanded the troops from Camp Sherman, Ohio. Preparations were at the same time made to withdraw the state constabulary, who have been on duty the greater part of the time since the miners struck for recognition of the union.

Details of the troop disposition were not made public, but it was understood that Colonel Burkhardt has under his command a sufficient number of officers and men to completely patrol the entire region, including Pike county, across the Tug river in Kentucky, where Kentucky national guardsmen have been stationed.

Reports received by coal or raters here was that a number of mines were in operation and preparations were being made to re-open others which have been closed since the strike was called.

NEW BOSTON

About four hundred Woodmen and their friends assembled in the W. O. W. Hall Saturday evening when the George A. Ditty Camp W. O. W. entertained with a "Home Coming." As Head Consul Trautman of Columbus and General Stoffel of Columbus entered the hall the bugle sounded attention and the distinguished visitors were escorted to the station of the Consul Commander. During the evening the following program was rendered:

America—Audience.
Prayer—James Elliott.
Address of Welcome—J. C. Harris.
Address—General Louis Stoffel.
Music.

Address—Ed Trautman.
Address—Mrs. S. L. Edgington.
The address of Sovereign J. C. Harris welcoming visiting Sovereigns and their families was excellent.

General Stoffel's talk was an able exposition of the principles of Woodcraft and was received with applause. The General believes thoroughly in Woodcraft and the earnestness with which he advocated protection for dependent ones impressed every one.

Head Consul Trautman followed, supplementing with some features that appealed strongly to the audience. This was the first visit the Head Consul of Ohio has made to George A. Ditty camp and it is needless to say that his visit was highly appreciated.

The first address of the evening was that of Mrs. S. L. Edgington of South Portsmouth. Mrs. Edgington is enthusiastic in the principles of the Woodman's Circle and believes in going about "doing good." Her address was replete with humor and pathos and was a rare treat to her audience.

Incidentally it was disclosed that George A. Ditty camp had disbursed during the past year $350 in sick benefits to its members and after having exhausted the Sick Fund the members had voluntarily contributed for relief to the sum of $225.

At the close of the program refreshments were served and games and dancing were indulged in till midnight.

Observations made simultaneously from stations far apart have proved that the average meteor when first seen is about eighty miles above the surface of the earth, and disappears from view at thirty miles. In other words, it travels fifty miles before the atmospheric friction burns it up. This friction, it is reckoned, raises it to a temperature of something like 3000,000 degrees, so that, unless of large size, it has no chance to reach our planet.

"The play's the thing," exclaimed Hamlet. Then he added sadly: "Fortunately the cinema has not been invented, so the king cannot forsake his show to go to the movies."

Divorce Suit Recalls Tragedy

On the grounds of infidelity and cruelty, Lulu E. Hughes seeks a divorce from Juried Hughes, former local shoe worker, now living at Columbus, in an action filed in Common Pleas court Monday.

They were married Sept. 15, 1916, and the wife, through Attorney L. A. Thompson, charges that Hughes abused her, struck her in the face, and on Nov. 7, 1919, compelled her to leave him by reason of his conduct toward her.

Hughes, it will be recalled, was the central figure in a sensational shooting affray in this city a few years ago when he shot and killed his wife, Clara Hughes, and her lover, John Harr.

The tragedy occurred at Third and Jefferson streets on August 23, 1906, Hughes killing both on the spot when he caught them together. He was convicted after a sensational trial and sentenced to life, but was pardoned after serving about 10 years.

Wife Complains of Neglect
Alleging neglect and declaring that he never lived with her one minute after their marriage on September 4, 1919, Verma McGee, of Carey's Run, is seeking a divorce in a suit filed in Common Pleas court Monday against William Attine.

Through Attorney J. O. Yates, Iron-ton, the plaintiff complains that McGee has refused to recognize her as his wife at any time and alleges he has failed to support her or their child.

NEW BOSTON

About four hundred Woodmen and their friends assembled in the W. O. W. Hall Saturday evening when the George A. Ditty Camp W. O. W. entertained with a "Home Coming." As Head Consul Troutman of Columbus and General Stoffel of Columbus entered the hall the bugle sounded attention and the distinguished visitors were escorted to the station of the Consul Commander. During the evening the following program was rendered:

America—Audience.
Prayer—James Elliott.
Address of Welcome—J. C. Harris.
Music.
Address—Ed Trautman.
Address—Mrs. S. L. Edington.
The address of Sovereign J. O. Harris welcoming visiting Sovereigns and their families was excellent.

General Stoffel's talk was an able exposition of the principles of Woodcraft and was received with applause. The General believes thoroughly in Woodcraft and the earnestness with which he advocated protection for dependent ones impressed every one.

Head Consul Trautman followed, supplementing with some features that appealed strongly to the audience. This was the first visit the Head Consul of Ohio has made to George A. Ditty camp and it is needless to say that his visit was highly appreciated.

The final address of the evening was that of Mrs. S. L. Edington of South Portsmouth. Mrs. Edington is enthusiastic in the principles of the Woodmen's Order and believes in going about "doing good." Her address was replete with humor and pathos and was a rare treat to her audience.

Incidentally it was disclosed that George A. Ditty camp had disbursed during the past year $350 in sick benefits to its members and after having exhausted the Sick Fund the members had voluntarily contributed for relief to the sum of $225.

At the close of the program refreshments were served and games and dancing were indulged in till midnight.

Meteors.
Observations made simultaneously from stations far apart have proved that the average meteor when first seen is about eighty miles above the surface of the earth, and disappears from view at thirty miles. In other words, it travels fifty miles before the atmospheric friction burns it up. This friction, it is reckoned, raises it to a temperature of something like 3,000,000 degrees, so that, unless of large size, it has no chance to reach our planet.

Marriage Suit Recalls Tragedy
On the grounds of immorality and cruelty, Julia F. Hughes seeks a divorce from Jurell Hughes, former meat slicer, now living at Columbus, in an action filed in Common Pleas court Monday.

They were married Sept. 15, 1916, and the wife, through Attorney L. A. Thompson, charges that Hughes choked her, struck her in the face, and on Nov. 7, 1919, compelled her to leave him by reason of his conduct toward her.

Hughes, it will be recalled, was the central figure in a sensational shooting affray in this city a few years ago when he shot and killed his wife, Flora Hughes, and her lover, John Hart. The tragedy occurred at Third and Jefferson streets on August 26, 1916, Hughes killing both on the spot when he caught them together. He was convicted after a sensational trial and sentenced for life, but was pardoned after serving about 10 years.

Chairman Hays Tells Fund Probers

"The real desire to work a real reform in the administration of any possible improper obligation," and because, experience in raising funds for war purposes had made popular drives "familiar activity, and it seemed possible to undertake that kind of action by a political organization."

"We particularly hoped that this activity would increase the political interest," he said.

Mr. Hays explained that the plan was proposed early in 1919 and that the purpose has been to light the contributions to a thousand dollars for any one year from any individual, or to a thousand dollars before the nominating convention and a thousand after.

"We have all tried to adhere to that plan," he said.

Mr. Hays described the organization of a general committee of ways and means, acting under the treasurer to carry the work into each state and of state ways and means committee, with a man as state chairman and a woman as vice chairman, then to conduct to get a county chairman of ways and means, and then by such processes of organization as the localities might adopt, organize just as in a Red Cross or Liberty Loan campaign.

The greatest publicity has been given to the movement," he explained because he said:

"Upon the acquittal of the party of the purpose, depended the political interest."

"As the effort progressed," the witness said, "tentative quotas were fixed by the treasurer's office, all tentative and rather as a goal—always high, of course, for the particular state to strive for, and changing constantly."

Mr. Hays went into detail as to the methods of organizing the state and of the various committees made with the senatorial and congressional campaign committees of the party to the effect that there would be but one party raising organization.

"In that connection," he said, "it is understood between the national committee and these two committees that the collecting organization of the national committee would help raise money for them, the amounts which they thought would be necessary for the congressional and senatorial campaigns."

The campaign budget or estimate was worked out beginning as early as July 1, a total amount which would be needed for the actual campaign, and was $2,000,000, he said. "Of this $2,000,000 was appropriated to the national committee. The balance was set at $2,000,000 for Washington, New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, and other headquarters were estimated at $1,000,000."

Back From Summer School

William S. Harris, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has returned from Madison, Wis., where he attended the American City Bureau's summer school the last two weeks.

According to Mr. Harris, who attended the school for the first time, the school is unique, there being no other like it in the world. It was established by the American City Bureau of New York in 1915, with 18 students. This year there were approximately 250 coming from 35 states and five Canadian provinces.

Its purpose is that of aiding executive officers of Chambers of Commerce to meet the growing demands upon civic-commercial community organizations like the modern type of chamber of commerce, and to develop the new profession of management of such bodies. Since the war there has been a wide spread expansion of the activities of these organizations and a call for highly trained managers which is being filled with difficulty. Certificates are issued by the school to those who have completed the course.

The school is a most practical one, taking up in detail methods of management and special problems which confront the secretary in study groups and by means of lectures by authorities upon their subjects. The work is intensive. The delightful location of Madison, adjoining a lake, and the use of the fine fraternal houses of the University of Wisconsin made the visit to that city and attendance at the school an enjoyable experience.

The Chamber of Commerce received the following notice from the Norfolk, Va., Chamber of Commerce Monday, relative to foreign shipments:

This order, issued today, should facilitate movement of all Export thru this Port, particularly in view of the fact that 'C. O. Dempsey Works Out In Heavy Downpour

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., Aug. 29.—Because of a fear of growing state, Billy Miske, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, planned today to drop all work with the gloves for a day at least and perhaps longer.

The challenger may be forced to suspend boxing for two or three days as a result of opening up an old wound over his left eye in training yesterday. Miske suffered a slight cut when a negro sparring partner luted him, but the injury his trainers said, is not likely to seriously bother him unless it is further damaged.

Dempsey is rapidly rounding into condition. The champion was so eager for work yesterday that he boxed the last four rounds of his glove session in a heavy downpour of rain.

Agitation Against Mays Must Stop, Says Ban

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Agitation for a strike against Pitcher Carl Mays of the New York Club of the American League has been ordered stopped by President Ban Johnson, according to an announcement made here today by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, one of the owners of the New York Club. President Johnson was in this city for a short time yesterday and Colonel Ruppert said he had a talk with the league head over the telephone. According to the announcement made by Colonel Ruppert he said, President Johnson told him that he had sent orders to every club in the league notifying them that the agitation for a strike against Pitcher Mays must cease immediately.

After the death of Roy Chapman, shortstop of the Cleveland club, which resulted from a ball thrown by Mays in a game in this city it was reported that several clubs had discussed refusing to take part in games against New York when Mays was selected to pitch. Active agitation for a strike against Mays, however, is said to have been inaugurated by the Cleveland club in a petition sent to the various clubs of the league urging them to join with the Cleveland club in refusing to play against Mays.

M'Graw Is After M'Henry

The rumor has again been revived that McGraw would like to have Outfielder McHenry of the St. Louis Cardinals.

McHenry is going at top speed and is considered one of the best outfielders in the National. He is hitting like a bend and would round out McGraw's outfield in great shape.

Tellings Failed To Play Here; Ran Into Bad Roads, Big Storms; To Return Later

The heavy rainfall prevented the scheduled clash between the crack Tellings of Dayton and a squad of the All Stars at Millbrook Park.

A rain storm which swept this section at the noon hour flooded the diamond and it continued to shower at intervals throughout the afternoon, making it impossible to stage the contest and Emporia Yeager and Spencer called the game off at three o'clock, after inspecting the field.

The visitors who made the trip from the Gen City by motor did not reach the city until after two o'clock, being delayed by the storm and had road encountered between here and Chillicothe. One of their machines hung up on the temporary road beyond Lucasville and only with much difficulty was the car gotten out of the mud. After reaching here the party had more bad luck when one of their machines broke down, making it necessary for some of the players to remain here over night. The others, including Manager Red Thomas and Pitcher Jack Probst returned to Dayton last night greatly disappointed over the failure to stage the battle and hope to return here at a later date.

Boston Opens In Redland; Giants Move To Pittsburgh

Boston will open a three game series in Cincinnati today. The Giants move over to Pittsburgh where they will play four games. Brooklyn will tackle St. Louis in a three game series.

If the pirates can wallop the Giants and the Reds throw the hooks into the Yankees they will make up some of the ground they lost to McGraw's men the past week.

SANDOW IS MATCHED

CHARLESTON, W. VA.—Young Sandow of Cincinnati and Eddie Whelan of Pittsburgh are to meet in a feature match of 10 rounds at the big boxing show to be staged in this city Wednesday night for the entertainment of the oil and gas men, who will meet in convention here September 1 and 2. This is easily the biggest test ever scheduled for this city.

Wednesday night for the entertainment of the oil and gas men, who will meet in convention here September 1 and 2. This is easily the biggest test ever scheduled for this city.

Different Story This Year

The Giants certainly showed up the crippled Reds in the three games just staged in Redland. The Reds were swept off their feet.

These teams have now played 17 games and the Reds have only won five of them. Last year the Reds won the pennant by beating the Giants. This year it looks like the Giants will win the pennant by beating the Reds.

Yanks Gain On White Sox

The Yankees gained ground on the White Sox and Cleveland teams yesterday as they beat St. Louis, 4 to 1, while the Indians lost to Washington, 4 to 3. The White Sox were idle.

The American race is just as hot as the one in the National and the pennant winner is not yet in sight, although most of the fans are picking 4 to 3. The White Sox were idle.

This Is Tough Blow To Reds

Neither soul Luque are afflicted with sore arms and the Reds hurting staff is all shot to pieces just when it should have been in shape for a gruelling finish. Luque has never had trouble with his arm and probably will be right in a day or two. Many fans believe Ruetter is stalling and is anxious to get away from Redville. He has been acting sulky for several weeks.

Reds Drop Three In Row; Brooklyn Loses Ground

Well, the Reds dropped three straight to the Giants, who are in the pennant race for fair and many are picking them to come through with the bunting. The giants caught the Reds when Ruetter and Luque were on the blink and of course trouped Moran's second string hurlers. But the Reds are not out of it by any means as Brooklyn lost ground in Chicago and the three teams are neck and neck.

Polish Peace Delegates Are Virtually Bolshevik Prisoners

(BULLETIN)
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Russian Soviet forces engaged in a counter offensive against the Poles east of Brest-Litovsk have occupied four villages in that vicinity. Near Lemberg there is heavy fighting going on, and in the Vlodava and Grubosoff regions there is local fighting. This information was received here this morning in a wireless dispatch from Moscow containing an official statement issued there yesterday.

MINSK, Aug. 22.—(VIA MOSCOW).—Members of the Polish peace delegation who came to this city to arrange an armistice and negotiate a treaty ending the war between Poland and Soviet Russia, have been engaged in a continual controversy with Bolshevik officials since arriving here. Disagreements between the delegation and the Soviet commissaire in command of the quarters where the Poles are virtual prisoners have reached boiling point. Proportions regarding the use of a wireless plant by the Poles and the regulations to be observed in the house where the delegation is living.

Some indication of the treatment in store for the delegation was seen in the action of the Bolsheviki when the Poles reached this city. The delegation was escorted by a detachment of mounted Soviet troops to a residence near the center of the city, about which guards were posted with orders to allow no one to leave without a Soviet escort. The correspondent of the Associated Press has found it difficult to obtain an exact view of the situation owing to the fact that he is a prisoner, like the rest of the Polish party. A visit was made by a local official, the correspondent being accompanied by a guard, and the official stated inasmuch as the Warsaw delegation to Minsk, he was identified with it.

"It is too bad you came with the Poles," he was told.

The Polish delegation set up a wireless plant soon after its arrival but was forced to move it three times in an endeavor to obtain a situation from which it might communicate with Warsaw. The last location was made this morning and prospects of sending messages to the Polish capital were good, but when an attempt was made to use the apparatus, it was found the Soviet commandant had seized it.

The Poles are impatient under the confinement, while the attitude of the Bolsheviki seems to grow more offensive as news of Polish victories filters through the lines. Members of the Polish mission said today the Soviet terms presented yesterday were not acceptable. They added they expected more favorable terms if the Polish military success continued and that if concessions were not made by the Soviet delegation, "there would be no peace at all."

This contingency would not surprise anyone here.

It has been recalled that when the Bolshevik delegation appointed to negotiate a peace with Esthonia went to Riga last autumn the Bolsheviki were kept under strict guard and were not permitted to appear in the streets without an armed escort. Correspondents accompanying the Soviet mission at that time were confined in the Bolshevik headquarters for more than a week before being given their liberty.

Examination Of Witnesses Will Consume Three Days; Investigation To Be Complete

CINCINNATI, August 30.—Senate investigation of Republican and Democratic presidential campaign expenditures started here today. The senatorial committee appointed prior to the conventions resented its inquiry by delving into the outlandish campaign chests, both the sums already raised and the amounts which the party leaders seek. The inquiry, for the time being at least, has become one of the paramount issues of the campaign.

Spurred by charges of Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic nominee, that the Republican party is raising a $15,000,000 campaign fund and the statement by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor Cox's running mate, that the amount is nearer $50,000,000, the committee is prepared for an exhaustive investigation of the entire question of campaign funds. For this purpose subpoenas were issued for Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee; George White, chairman of the Democratic committee; Fred L. Johnson and Wilbur Marshall, treasurers of the two committees; and the senatorial and congressional committees of each party and Governor Cox himself has been invited to attend or send a representative.

The governor so far has not answered, but has indicated that he will send information to support his charges. One senator, a member of the committee last week, said it was possible that Governor Cox would be subpoenaed, if he did not come to Chicago voluntarily. Possibility of the committee going to Governor Cox so as not to interrupt his campaign itinerary also was mentioned today.

The senatorial investigating committee is composed of Senators Kenyon, chairman; Pomeroy, Spencer, Reed and Edge.

Senator Edge reached here last night. Today's session was the first he had attended since before the conventions as he had been in Europe for some time.

Outlining the scope of the inquiry into the presidential campaign, Senator Kenyon announced that the investigation not only would delve into collection of money to finance the campaign, but would seek to reveal whether promises of federal patronage were being exchanged for campaign assistance. He also promised an inquiry into charges that federal office holders were campaigning for Governor Cox, with their expenses paid out of government funds.

Examination of the witnesses, already summoned will take at least three days, Mr. Kenyon estimated. Their testimony is expected to reveal many angles which the committee will wish to follow and persons mentioned in their testimony as having knowledge of campaign financial affairs will be subpoenaed, committee men say.

The senate committee has dropped, for the present, its investigation of pre-convention, state and congressional campaign expenditures, but will reopen that phase of its task after completing the inquiry evoked by the charges of Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt.

Brooklyn Has Car Strike; All Systems Are Tied Up

NEW YORK, August 30.—More than one million Brooklyn residents, who depend largely upon the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company to take them to business, today were reduced to impoverished and even primitive methods of conveyance by the strike of company employees that virtually shut down the entire transit system—subways, elevated roads and trolleys.

The strike went into effect early Sunday morning, after the men had previously voted to postpone action pending further attempts to adjust wage demands.

Long before the accustomed rush hour this morning the streets were jammed with pedestrians looking for vehicles most of which were already crowded with passengers. Notwithstanding the use of automobiles from house to house, many thousands had to walk to their distant places of work. The strike yesterday kept thousands of persons from Sunday excursions to the beaches. However, a crowd estimated at 100,000, managed to reach Coney Island in public and private automobiles.

Hearing on the strike situation was called for today by Lindsey M. Garrison, receiver for the company, and by Mayor Hylan.

Mr. Garrison requested bus companies in New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts to send as many vehicles here as possible.

Officials of the company announced that strike breakers will be employed. Application has been made for police protection of trains.

Hunger Strike Victim Shows Slight Improvement

PHOENIX, August 30.—The condition of Terence MacSwiney, Irish hunger strike victim, was reported today to be slightly improved over yesterday when he suffered a serious relapse.

He rallied during the night and it was stated at Bristol Jail that the end was not close for another three days, at least. Today was the eighth day of the mayor's hunger strike.

BIGGER, BETTER THAN EVER, OHIO STATE FAIR OPENS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30.—Beneath a grey sky that presaged rain, Ohio's seventeenth state fair opened here at 7 o'clock this morning with everything in readiness for the record crowds that are expected.

Workmen spent all yesterday putting the finishing touches on the monster exposition; getting the hundreds of exhibits in shape, and putting the grounds in spic and span order. Almost without exception, everything is bigger than before.

There is more live stock, several acres more of machinery, more exhibits in the auto show, vastly more race horses and better cards than ever and more amusements.

The night horse show and hippodrome starting at 7 p. m. in the Coliseum and the pageant of children at the same time in front of the grand stand at the race track are the two outstanding events each day.

Today is women's free day, and tomorrow presidential day. Governor Cox, Democratic nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and Dr. A. S. Watkins, standard bearer of the prohibition party, are to speak in the Coliseum shortly after lunch.

The 2.15 race tomorrow will have to be given in two sections, because of the great number of entries. There are 50. In all there are 256 race entries.

Premium awards this year aggregate $110,000 against $55,000 last year. Secretaries of agriculture from some other states have sent word they will attend.

Wednesday and Thursday are stage days; Thursday also is Governor's day; Friday general fair day, and Saturday, children's day.

Mexican Kidnappers Are Being Pursued

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 29.—Search for American and British subjects kidnapped by Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit, during his raid on the town of Cuale on August 20, has been ordered by the war department. General Rafael Buelna, commander of a force of cavalry pursuing the outlaws, continues to follow their trail, and it is declared the bandits are demoralized and in flight.

Reports received today at the presidential offices from General P. Elias Calles, secretary of war, who has gone to Guadalajara, say the outlaws lost more than 50 killed in the recent fight with government troops at Hacheco delizadores. All women who were kidnapped by the Zamora band in the raid on the town of Cuale, August 21, have been liberated, it is stated.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., August 30.—The body of Claude Chandler, negro, who last night was taken from the jail here by a group of thirty masked men, was found early today hanging from a tree near Council Grove about eight miles west of this city, according to a message to the sheriff's office here.

Officers Make Big Booze Haul

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 30.—Three men are in the county jail here today and three automobiles loaded with 500 quarts of bonded whiskey are added to the spoils of federal agents as the result of a seizure made between Niles and Titusville yesterday.

The men, who said they were en route from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, gave their names as Ralph Mason, Grodie Cable and William Splenzer. Mason attempted to get away, but turned into a blind road and was captured. A woman with him was released. All the cars are roadsters.

Big Fair Is On

COLUMBUS, O., August 30.—The Ohio State Fair got under way today with what officials term the largest and most complete exhibits in its history.

Northern Ohio Wants Coal

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 30.—Modification of the emergency order diverting railroads to give preference and priority to the northwestern states in the movement of coal was sought today from the interstate commerce commission by the chambers of commerce of Cleveland and Akron, Ohio. Representatives of the two chambers at a hearing before the commission asked that some of the coal passing through their districts for the relief of the northwest fuel shortage be diverted for the use of the Ohio cities. Coal shipments to the northwest have been sufficient to practically take care of the needs of that section, it was claimed.

Importance was attached to the outcome of the hearing by officials of the commission who said that modification of the northwest priority order might result in cancellation of all such emergency orders now in effect as a precedent would be established in favor of other communities seeking similar treatment.

Representatives of coal consuming interests of North Carolina have asked the commission to allow some of the coal enroute to New England under emergency orders to be diverted to their state.

ROAD BUILDING FUNDS REACH STAGGERING SUM

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 30.—Combined federal and state expenditures for road building may reach a total of $200,000,000 during the current fiscal year, according to Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads, department of agriculture.

The last installment of federal aid funds totaling $10,000,000 became available last July 1. Three-quarters of this appropriation was derived from the 1919 appropriation, while $25,000,000 was provided from the original appropriation in 1916.

"If the states continue to pay more than fifty percent of the cost as they have in the past," Mr. MacDonald said, "it will be necessary to plan for construction at the rate of at least $100,000,000 and probably more, each year."

State highway departments should know at least a year in advance what funds are to be available in order that plans may be made for future construction, Mr. MacDonald said. "The less further federal aid is taken in the coming year," he added, "the states will be left in doubt as to the future policy of the government and the amount of money they must be prepared to spend. Such a contingency would involve a serious setback to the progress of road construction and port."

SEN. HARDING'S ITINERARY SOON WILL BE ANNOUNCED

MARTON, O., August 30.—Plans for some other speaking trips to be made by Senator Harding are nearing completion and announcement probably will be made soon of three or four of the places outside Ohio, where he will deliver addresses.

New York and Chicago are understood to be virtually certain to be on the list and the claims of a number of cities in the middle west and west are under serious consideration.

Denver, Salt Lake City and Spokane mark the western end of the swing around the circle as it now is under discussion, but the schedule has been strongly urged to go all the way to the pacific coast and a final decision on the request is yet to be made.

Indianapolis is considered a likely selection among the cities nearer Ohio, and there may also be a speech at Louisville. It has been suggested that the candidate pay his respects to neighboring states on the east by speaking at Philadelphia and Wheeling, but it is uncertain whether that plan will be carried out.

Oils, equipments and steels being the center of another selling movement. Mexican petroleum lost 1 3/4 points. Railway locomotive 1 3/8. Standard steel 1 1/2. Other leaders of the industrial division were fractionally lower. Local fractions were not affected by a material extent by the strike on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system. Rails were well supported, an early advance of a point for St. Louis and Southern was preferred suggesting further buying of these speculative transportation.

CHAMPION JACK GETTING IN FINE TRIM FOR BATTLE WITH MISKE

ERRY ANTE

Passing A Guy Out

BENTON HARBOR, MICH. Aug. 29

Whatever the ambitions of Billy Miske, St. Paul challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, Jack Dempsey doesn't propose to regard lightly the plans which his opponent here of Labor Day afternoon has laid to capture the title.

It is a fact well known that Miske is an able battler and it is in his fitness for the past year that the Dempsey camp see real reason to fear for the safety of pugilism's great prize. Five months of careful training, during which time he has engaged in one bout represents the amount of preparation which Miske has gone through before coming here to continue his work.

That Dempsey will not suffer from over-confidence is certain. He has demonstrated that much by the eagerness with which he has followed the instructions of Manager Jack Kearns in his training. With the able Ben Smith assisting, Jack has just completed about the most strenuous first week's training a champion ever engaged in in preparing to defend his title.

Five days of road work has sharpened the champion's mind and strengthened his legs to such a degree that he says he feels fit right now to jump into the ring. "I'll need some boxing to improve my speed and judgment of distance," said Dempsey today, "but I do not anticipate any trouble getting down to the form I was in against Willard. I have only a few extra pounds to remove now. At Toledo I was in and out of form during that long reign of training several times. I have kept in shape by doing light work for several months, boxing exhibitions and the like, and the past week's work here has done me a lot of good."

Hundreds of week-end visitors journeyed to the Dempsey camp yesterday.

Dempsey Works Out In Heavy Downpour

BENTON HARBOR, MICH. Aug. 29.—Because of a fear of growing stale, Billy Miske, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, planned today to drop all work with the gloves for a day at least and perhaps longer.

The challenger may be forced to suspend boxing for two or three days as a result of opening up an old wound over his left eye in training yesterday. Miske suffered a slight cut, when a negro sparring partner butted him, but the injury his trainers said, is not likely to seriously bother him unless it is further damaged.

Tellings Failed To Play Here; Ran Into Bad Roads, Big Storms; To Return Later

The heavy rainfall prevented the scheduled clash between the crack Tellings of Dayton and a squad of Gabe's All Stars at Millbrook Park. A rain storm which swept this section at the noon hour flooded the diamond and it continued to shower at intervals throughout the afternoon, making it impossible to stage the combat and Empires Yeager and Spencer called the game off at three o'clock, after inspecting the field.

The visitors who made the trip from the Gem City by motor did not reach the city until after two o'clock, being delayed by the storm and foul road encountered between here and Chillicothe. One of their machines hung up on the temporary road beyond Lucasville and only with much difficulty was the car gotten out of the mud. After reaching here the party had more bad luck when one of their machines broke down, making it necessary for some of the players to remain here over night. The others, including Manager Red, Thomas and Pitcher Jack Frost returned to Dayton last night greatly disappointed over the failure to stage the battle and hope to return here at a later date.

Your House Plants.
The professional florist understands that although house plants must be kept moist they must never be allowed to become soggy. To begin with, they should be well drained. Broken pots or chiders should be placed below the earth they grow in. The soil should be mixed with sand, too, to lighten it. Never water a plant until the soil on top is almost dry. Then water it thoroughly—drench it, but let the water drain out through the bottom of the pot, and never let it stand in the saucer under the pot, for it becomes stagnant and injures the plant.
